Christian-Owned Businesses Congratulate President-elect Trump and Vice President-elect Vance

Ask Them to Prioritize Restoring First Freedoms, Dismantle Regulatory State

Cumming, GA — The diverse member businesses of the Christian Employers Alliance (CEA) congratulate President-elect Donald J. Trump and Vice-President-elect JD Vance on their hard-fought victory! What an amazing testament to courage, leadership, and perseverance; all commendable traits, especially in the most challenging times.

“We are grateful God spared President Trump’s life from two assassination attempts, and his acknowledgment that ‘God spared [his] life for a reason.’ We await more favorable outcomes in the U.S. Senate and House of Representatives and the opportunities they will provide in the new year,” said CEA President Shannon O. Royce, JD.

“We ask President Trump to make it his immediate priority to unite Americans by restoring the First Freedoms of speech, religion, and conscience, and dismantling the deeply entrenched regulatory and bureaucratic architecture stifling our economy, businesses, and people.”
